OFFICE NOTE.

SUBJECT. Remission of the arrears due from Byadaraddihalli Linga late Vend Farmer of Jaggery ovens in the Challakere Taluk for the year 1892-93.

LAST REFERENCE. Letter No. 2777/268 dated 12th Dec/94 from the Excise Comr in Mysore

One Byadaraddihalli Linga ~~took up~~ obtained the lease of 22 Jaggery Ovens for Rs 2550-0-0 in the Challakere Taluk for the year 1892-93, when three Sales were held by the Special Officers Messrs Lee Donald & Gopalaingar but did not take them up & work them -

2 & the Farmer failed to give proper Security and produce deposit, the said ovens were sold on different dates pursuant by the auctions under the directions of the Special Officers for the Domain, but the number of Acres so sold, the dates of Sales & the Amounts realized are not given at all - These details are have been missed in the Statement in cols 4 & 5.

3. The sum of Rs 918-00 was the net loss to Govt by the resale, which including interest amounted to Rs 1019-15-8 as shown below:—

Orgl Sale Amount	2550-00
Total resale Amt	1632-00
Balance	918-00
Interest	101-15-8
Total	1019-15-8

4 There was failure on the part of the Farmer from the very outset and he did not take up the Farm at all. As he turned out to be a man of straw and possessed neither movable nor immovable property of any kind, the amount is now recommended for remission

5 The Case was all along under Correspondence between the amildar & the Dy Comr and the delay in not soliciting

Sanction for remission in 1892-93 nor for a year 28 months till Dec/94
is unexplained in the large

Sir,

In forwarding for Submission to Government a remission statement in respect of a certain Sum of money due by one Byadaraddihalli Linga, the purchaser of certain Jaggery ovens in the Chellakere Taluk in the year 1892-93; I have the honor to state that the ovens in question were first sold to the said Linga for Rs 2400 plus 150-0-0 on account of local cess.

His

This purchaser having failed to furnish the prescribed deposit or security, the ovens were subsequently resold on different dates piece-meal with the result, that the aggregate amount realized was Rs 1536-0-0 plus Rs 96-0-0 (local cess). Such resale having been effected at the risk of the defaulter, the deficiency of Rs 918-0-0 had to be made good by him. The necessary steps were accordingly taken to enforce payment, but the result proved in fructuous. It has been ascertained that the defaulter is a man of straw and is possessed of no property whatever moveable or immoveable In these circumstances, the difference of Rs 918-00 above mentioned with interest thereon has to be written off the accounts Hence this recommendation. The vernacular papers connected with the case are herewith forwarded for reference.

Rs 918/- to Govt as shown in the margin. The ~~Deputy~~ Excise Comr reports that all possible steps were taken for the recovery of the loss sustained by Govt but ~~were of~~ unavailing as the defaulter was a ~~Govt~~ mere straw. Hence the recommendation for remission :—

Original Sale Amt	2550	0 0
Total Resale Amt	1632	0 0
Balance (including local Chs)	918	0 0

3. Under these circumstances the remission of the amount is sanctioned. ~~with the remark~~ Noted that the number of days sold by the Amildar on different dates, the dates of such sales, And the ~~difference~~ amounts realized ought to have been given in Cols 4 & 5 of the Statement ~~and there ought~~ while very long ~~not to have been~~ the delay of about 2½ years in the Submission of this claim. The dates of the sales stated have been given & the long delay in submitting this statement accorded.
